Are you passionate about making a difference in the lives of young children? We're looking for caring and enthusiastic individuals to join our team as Work-Study Assistants!

If you have a kind heart, love working with kids aged 1-5, and are excited about contributing to their early development, this is the perfect opportunity for you! Your daily tasks will include interacting with children, helping them learn and grow through play, and ensuring their toys and play areas are clean and sanitized.

Why You'll Love This Role:

- Make a Difference: Be a part of a child's early learning journey and contribute to their growth.
- Daily Joy: Experience the unique joy of working with young children and seeing the world through their eyes.
- Build Skills: Develop valuable skills in childcare, teamwork, and responsibility.
- Supportive Environment: Join a team that values kindness, compassion, and teamwork.

If you're ready to bring your positive energy and dedication to our team, we'd love to hear from you!

Make time to make a difference

Join the Enhabit Home Health & Hospice team and become a hospice volunteer

Enhabit is looking for volunteers to provide companionship and support to patients during their final months and weeks of life. As a hospice volunteer, you'll help ensure that the patient and family's needs are met by assisting with everyday tasks, providing respite time to a patient's caregivers or clerical tasks.

Enhabit values the generosity of our volunteers and provides training and ongoing support. To find more information and fill out a volunteer form, please visit our website or contact your local volunteer coordinator:

Melissa Estrada, Volunteer Coordinator
208.452.4972
melissa.estrada@ehab.com

Here are just a few specific ways hospice volunteers can help:

- Provide companionship and socialization
- Help with general office support
- Run errands for patients and families
- Write a journal or life story with patients to give to the family
- Play games, read and listen to music with patients
- Walk/care for family pets
- Assist with light house cleaning
- Provide bereavement support
